224 Quarryhill Botanical Garden Docent Tour and Picnic Lunch Quantity: 10

Quarryhill Botanical Garden in Glen Ellen is one of the most exotic and biologically diverse places in Sonoma Valley. The Garden is internationally recognized as the home to one of the largest collections of scientifically documented, wild sourced Asian plants in the Western world. Roses, camellias, rhododendrons, magnolias, maples, dogwoods, lilies and so much more. It'll be a wonderful opportunity for birding and photography too. We'll take a docent-led tour and follow up with a delicious picnic lunch in the lovely Garden.
